THE FUNDAMENTAL DIMENSIONS OF STRATEGY In this article Frederic Frery divides strategy into three dimensions, these dimensions are what explain why, how and what of a strategy. He goes as far as to say that a real strategic decision is made only when the three dimensions are taken into account. The dimensions he clarifies to be important are: creating value, handling imitation and defining a ...

The globalization of the competitive landscape has forced companies to fundamentally rethink their strategies. Whereas once only a few industries such as oil could be labeled truly global, today many—from pharmaceuticals to aircraft to computers—have become global in scale and scope. As a consequence, creating a global competitive advantage has become a key strategic issue for many companies. Crafting a global strategy requires making decisions about which strategy elements can and should be globalized and to what extent.
