In Awakening to the Spirit World Sandra Ingerman recommends visiting the Lower World first to meet one of your power animals. She also recommends choosing an entrance to the Lower World, one that you will remember, one that seems right for you. I chose an entrance to some underground caverns I visited a few years before.

Journey to the Lower World | Spirit Walking Journal

Each of us was asked to meditate and go on a journey to the lower world (by imagining a hole in the earth or a tree, or simply imagining an elevator with a button labeled "lower world") to discover our power animal. A power animal, we were told, was a helper spirit, an animal representing our instinctive knowledge and elemental gifts.
