Hopeful, hilarious musings and serious advice for new teachers from the formerly anonymous blogger behind Love, Teach. Every teacher will tell you the first years are the hardest, and even the most confident of the pack sometimes ask themselves, Am I cut out for this? Kelly Treleven, the teacher and once-anonymous blogger behind Love, Teach, wants you to know that you're not alone, and that yes, she has cried under her desk, too. Treleven's blog has become a sensation in the education world, known for its heartfelt, high-spirited dispatches straight from the trenches and its practical advice. In Treleven's debut book, she gives rookie teachers the advice she wishes she'd had when she started out in a large district in Houston. From logistical questions like how to prep and organize a classroom, to deeper issues like how to build relationships with students, navigate administration, and avoid burnout, Love, Teach is an essential book for anyone working in education today or considering the profession. With raw feeling, humor, and a razor-sharp perspective, Love, Teach supports teachers in their fight for a better future, and helps them celebrate the victories, large and small.

This workbook comes with 68 different writing prompts for gifted and talented students in sixth grade and seventh grade. Each page has a wildlife photo and a question to promote critical thinking, such as: Why must kids go to school instead of playing video games all day? Is it okay to kill a flower just so that you can have it? What sharp things are dangerous to humans? Why shouldn't people feed human leftovers to dogs and cats? Do plants think about the Sun and warmth? Why is it okay to chop a tree limb off, but not a dog's leg? Is a bird's baby less important than a human's baby? What real thing or possible event are you afraid of? Why do people kill bees that sting us, but not cats that bite us? Who is the most important person in the world? Is it okay to say "I hate you" to someone? What fun events make you the happiest? How is the Sun important to you staying alive? What job would you like to have when you're older? What physical work must you do in order to have food for a meal? Why do siblings argue with each other? Which building do you spend the most time in? When was the last time you visited a lake? What is the last insect you picked up? When is a tree no longer a tree? How are you similar to a bird? What places have you gone swimming? How does a plant know where the Sun is? Have you ever climbed to the top of a tree? How is a fence different from a tree? And more...
